

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION:

About this Toolkit, How and Why it was Produced, Who Can Use It	1
FEEDBACK: “Tools for the Journey” Feedback Form	3

SECTION A: Resources

Palliative Pain and Symptom Management Consultation (PPSMC)	A-1
Ontario Cancer Symptom Management Collaborative	A-2
Regional Cancer Programs	A-2
General Resources:
▪ VIDEO RESOURCES	A-3
▪ WEBSITES	A-6
▪ BOOKS	A-10
Regional Cancer Programs, Aboriginal Patient Navigators	A-10
Glossary of Medical Terms	A-16

PRINT RESOURCES

Non FNIM Specific

- Palliative Care Consultation Network (Pain and Symptom Management Consultants)
- St. Elizabeth First Nations, Inuit and Métis Program brochure
- Canadian Association of Psychosocial Oncology - The Emotional Facts of Life with Cancer
- Mt. Sinai Hospital - What to Expect In the Last Days of Life: A Guide for Caregivers
- Indigenous Perspectives on Death and Dying, Ian Anderson Continuing Education Program in End-of-Life Care, D. Longboat
- Canadian Virtual Hospice - When Death is Near
- Canadian Virtual Hospice - Children at the Bedside
- A Guide to Advance Care Planning
- Speak-Up – End-of Life Care, Advance Care Planning Workbook
- What Every Older Canadian Should Know About Powers of Attorney (for financial matters and property) and Joint Bank Accounts
- Powers of Attorney and “Living Wills”: Questions and Answers
- Powers of Attorney: Forms for Continuing POA for Property and Personal Care

First Nations Specific

- Caring for the Terminally Ill: Honouring the Choices of the People
- Care for the Social and Emotional Aspect of the Person
- Resources

Métis Specific

- Cancer in the Métis Nation of Ontario: Fact Sheet

Inuit Specific

- Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, Inuit and Cancer: Fact Sheets
- Pauktuutit, Kaggutiq Inuit Cancer Glossery

SECTION B: Palliative Care, Diagnosis and Working Together

What is Palliative Care	B-1
Other Ways of Defining Palliative Care	B-2
Cancer Diagnosis and Communications	B-2
What is Cancer	B-2
Metastatic Cancer Overview	B-3
Advanced Cancer	B-8
Cancer Among First Nations, Inuit and Métis People: Overview	B-9
Getting Quality Care as a Cancer Patient	B-11
Appointment Checklist	B-12
Tools for Coping: Questions to Ask your Doctor about Your Cancer	B-12
Talking to Children About Cancer	B-16
Palliative Care in Cancer	B-19

SECTION C: Teachings to Support Grief & Loss in First Nations, Inuit and Métis Communities

What is Grief and Loss	C-1
Stories and Traditional Teachings	C-5
Story: Speaking My Truth: Anishinaabe	C-6
Stories about Cancer: Woodland Cree, Northern Saskatchewan	C-7
Traditional Approaches to Supporting Loved Ones in Sickness & Death:
Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) Funerals	C-13
Haudenosaunee Mutual Aid Societies	C-15
Traditional Inuit Healing Therapies	C-15
Story: Métis Cancer Survivor	C-16

SECTION D: What to Expect – Making Decisions and Plans

After the Diagnosis	D-1
Powers of Attorney	D-2
The Importance of Writing a Will	D-5
End of Life Process	D-5
After the Funeral	D-6

SECTION E: Understanding the Diagnosis for Patients and Caregivers

What is Palliative Care, What is a Caregiver E-1

Planning for Comfort Care at Home E-2

Physical Caregiving Overview:

- 1. Equipment E-3
- 2. Infection Control and Prevention E4
- 3. Daily Care E-5
- 4. Body Mechanics E-8
- 5. Daily Monitoring E-9
- 6. Using Special Equipment E-10
- 7. Medications E-10

Self-Care for the Caregiver E-11

Common Sources of Stress for Caregivers E-12

Signs of Stress E-12

Avoiding Burnout E-13

Respite Care E-14

Providing Emotional Support E-14

More Tips for Communicating E-15